Dear Senator Levin:

The White House has asked me to respond to your letter of February 3 urging that the case of Raoul Wallenberg be placed on the agenda for the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) Review Meeting in Moscow scheduled for 1991.

Raoul Wallenberg's case has been raised repeatedly in our bilateral human rights discussions with Soviet representatives and during the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe (CSCE) Review Meeting in Vienna which concluded in January. We intend to keep raising his case in all appropriate fora -- including during the CSCE Review Meeting in Moscow scheduled for 1991 -- until a satisfactory response is received.

You may be assured that the President and the Department of State share with Congress a deep concern about the fate of Raoul Wallenberg. This Administration will continue the efforts of previous administrations to urge the Soviet Government to clarify the fate of this brave man.

Sincerely,

W
Janet G. Mullins
Assistant Secretary
Legislative Affairs

The Honorable
Carl Levin,
United States Senate.
